

Generations Tell Each Other

Text: Matthew R. Anderson Psalm 103

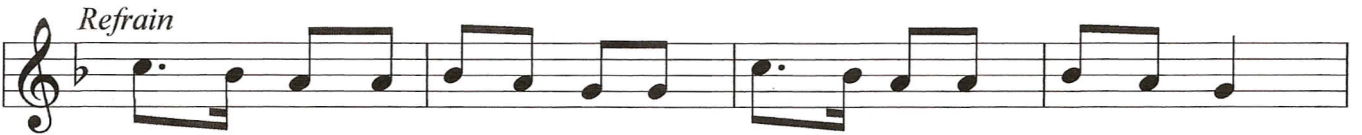

Tune: Traditional Québécois

Leader {
1. As high a - bove us are the hea - vens, far as east is from the west.
2. Though our mor - tal days are num - bered, you re - mem - ber us, O Lord.
3. With the flow - ers of the field, we flour - ish when we sing your praise.
4. As you lift - ed our trans - gres - sions, help us raise up the opp - ressed.
5. If the wind should pass us o - ver, and the dust know us no more;

All {
High a - bove us are the hea - vens, far as east is from the west.
Though our mor - tal days are num - bered, you re - mem - ber us, O Lord.
With the flow - ers of the field, we flour - ish when we sing your praise.
As you lift - ed our trans - gres - sions, help us raise up the opp - ressed.
If the wind should pass us o - ver, and the dust know us no more;

Refrain
Bless the Lord all that is in me; Slow to an - ger, stead - fast love,

Gen - er - a - tions tell each o - ther: Love and mer - cy from a - bove!

Gen - er - a - tions tell each o - ther: Love and mer - cy from a - bove!
